A Long, Long Sleep is a clever inventive sc-fi dystopia read with a neat futuristic concept, mystery and romance. The writing is well paced and well crafted. The concept Brendan was only exploring the hidden subbasement, not realizing what he stumbled upon when he saw the stasis tube flickering light.

Anna Sheehan says of A Long, Long Sleep, her first novel, I always thought the interesting thing about Sleeping Beauty wasnt why she was put to sleep, but what she had to come to terms with afterward. Everything would have changed radically - technology and politics as well as social structure.

Book Review: A Long Long Sleep by Anna Sheehan

A Long, Long Sleep will appeal to fans of fairy tale retellings with a twist, as well as fans of science fiction with a little bit of a dystopian swing to it, like Karr's XVI. It's an engaging world, and through the way the story builds, this is the kind of book that could appeal to traditional non-genre readers, as well.
