Aesop's Fables - World history

Many common sayings come from Aesop's Fables: "Don't count your chickens before they hatch," and "Honesty is the best policy," and "Look before you leap" are familiar examples. Whether a Greek slave named Aesop made up these stories or whether many people living at different times made up the stories is not important.

But shortly after this a Wolf actually did come out from the forest, and began to worry the sheep, and the boy of course cried out "Wolf, Wolf," still louder than before. But this time the villagers, who had been fooled twice before, thought the boy was again deceiving them, and nobody stirred to come to his help.
