Atheism is the absence or rejection of the belief that deities exist. The English term was used at least as early as the sixteenth century and atheistic ideas and their influence have a longer history. Over the centuries, atheists have supported their lack of belief in gods through a variety of avenues, including scientific, philosophical, and ideological notions. In the East, a contemplative life not centered on the idea of deities began in the sixth century BCE with the rise of Jainism, Buddhi national history. Personally, I wonder if teaching national history is a good idea. The content of national history textbooks seems to be to glorify the nation, to explain why "we" are better than anyone else, and to justify why we should impose our religion, our system of government, and our values on other people in other parts of the world.
