Émile Durkheim (French: [emil dyÉ•kÉ•m] or; 15 April 1858 – 15 November 1917) was a French sociologist. He formally established the academic discipline and – with W. E. B. Du Bois, Karl Marx and Max Weber – is commonly cited as the principal architect of modern social science. Much of Durkheim's work was concerned with how societies could maintain their integrity and coherence in ...

Comparative Criminal Justice: Theoretical Perspectives NOT

Actor–network theory (ANT) is a theoretical and methodological approach to social theory where everything in the social and natural worlds exists in constantly shifting networks of relationship. It posits that nothing exists outside those relationships. All the factors involved in a social situation are on the same level, and thus there are no external social forces beyond what and how the ...

–Fake news–™ is a key subject of data politics, but also a tricky one. As this chapter aims to show, various phenomena signified by this misleading label have little in common, except being opposite to the kind of algorithmic intelligence that most other chapters present as the main concern of data politics.
